UNFINISHED BUSINESS

being the bill to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington, N. C., the same was taken up and put on its second reading.

Mr. Rice, in charge of the bill, spoke in favor of the bill, eulogizing the Democratic party of the days of Jefferson and Washington and said he thanked God there were a few honest Democrats still existing, but they were few aed far between.

Mr. Adams said this was the first time the funeral of the Democratic party had been preached and he was glad it came from such a preacher as the distinguished Senator from New Hanover. He rebuked the Senator for his language when he was a representative of a party who had entered a [illegible] with the Populists—simply to grasp upon the offices of this State. He said this bill says we are incapable of managing the finances and we don't want to, and we do want the offices because we can take them.

The bill passed its second and third readings.

was taken up and the following business transacted:

Bill to amend the charter of the town of Beaufort, N. C., passed its second reading, ayes 27, noes 0.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Rill to restore Mitchell county to the Ninth Congressional district being the special order for 12 o'clock noon, was taken up on its second reading.

Mr. White, of Alexander, submitted an amendment, provided this act shall not go into effect until it shall be ratified by the people of Mitchell county at an election to be called in October, 1895; lost.

Mr. Marshall sent up an amendment to provide for Surry county to be transferred to 5th Congressional district; ruled out of order.

The bill was vigorously opposed by Senators White, of Alexander, Marshall and Fortune.

The supporters of the bill were: Senators Black, Moody of Haywood, Farthing, Mewborne and Candler.

The bill passed its second reading—ayes 19, noes 7, and went to a third reading and passed.

CALENDAR RESUMED.

Resolution to authorize State Treasurer to pay $78.25, actual expenses of the sub-committee on privileges and election, which visited Edgecombe county in a contested election case, passed second and third readings.

Bill to create a new township to be known as Flax township, in Macon county, passed its several readings and was ordered enrolled.

Bill to create a criminal circuit of the counties of Craven, New Hanover, Mecklenburg, Forsyth, Wake, Edgecombe and Halifax.

Mr. Cook sent up an amendment to strike out Wake, Forsyth and Wayne counties and insert Vance, Warren and Robeson counties.

This bill is a substitute for the bill to abolish the criminal court of New Hanover county.

Mr. Fowler opposed this bill as one to create additional expenses. He said he was pledged to economy and that it was a fact that litigation was on the decrease. Then why all these additional courts with expenses of judge, solicitor, clerks and other officers. He was opposed to such legislation and he would vote against it.

Mr. Rice said New Hanover county did want to abolish the criminal court of that county, not because they did not want a criminal court, but they did not want to pay $11,000. They wanted a criminal circuit created to divide the expenses.

Mr. Hoover thought we had enough courts—opposed the bill and substitute. He came here to do all in his power to economize and save, not to increase expenses and offices. We don't need these courts and he would not vote for them. It looked to him like it was a bill calculated to give some one out of employment a job. He hoped that it was not but that it looked that way to him. He denounced the bill as an outrage and injustice to the people.

Mr. Paddison said he was surprised at the speech of the senator from Wilson (Mr. Hoover). He was satisfied that New Hanover needed a criminal court and wanted one. So with Craven and Mecklenburg, but they did not want to bear the expenses of these courts. This criminal circuit will divide these expenses. In the interest of reform and economy he was in favor of the bill.

Mr. Fowler said Wayne county was originally in the bill and its Senator had requested its name stricken out. Wake county was in the bill and its name was asked to be stricken out. Wake had tried it and with all her wealth found it an expensive thing. Other counties had petitioned not to be in the list. The whole thing was a scheme to give some one out of work a job. There was no need of such a criminal circuit and he would vote against the bill. It was inflicting on the people what they had not asked for and what they did not want.

Mr. Adams said that as a special favor he asked that Mecklenburg be stricken out of the bill, or that the further consideration of this bill be postponed till the Senator from Mecklenburg may be here to be heard, and he therefore moved to postpone till 11:30 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, February 27, 1895, and the bill went over.

Pursuant to adjournment the senate was called to order at 8 o'clock, p. m. by the president.

THE CALENDAR

Mr. Adams submitted that all liabilities and debts owing by the present corporation shall become liabilities of the new corporation, and all property now owned by the city shall be conveyed to the new corporation, and all suits now pending against the present corporation shall become suits against the present corporation, and all contracts now in existence made by the present corporation shall be faithfully carried out by the new corporation.

Some discussion arose upon the difference of opinion of lawyers as to whether this repeal of the present charter would not invalidate contracts made by the city authorities.

974, house bill, to amend charter, second and third readings.

Bill to amend the usury law, for the protection of building and loan associations, was recommended by the judiciary committee and advocated by Mr. Monroe.

Mr. Campbell opposed the motion.

Mr. McClammy and Mr. McCall advocated postponement.

The bill after discussion, was postponed indefinitely.

Mr. Gallop moved to amend by exempting the waters of Currituck.

Mr. Squires opposed the amendment.

Mr. Peebles demanded the ayes and noes. "It was evidently the intention of the bill," he said, "to let Northern men come down there and fish with the hook and line." On the call of the roll the amendment was lost by a vote of 46 to 50.

The bill unamended then came up.

Mr. Peebles demanded the ayes and noes, and the bill passed its third reading by a vote of 67 to 33—a party vote, the Democrats as a body voting against the bill.

Mr Williams of Craven introduced

503, resolution to investigate the affairs of the shell fish commission as follows:

WHEREAS, It is a matter of common notoriety that the late chief commissioner, W. H. Lucas, and the Board of Shell Fish commissioners received large sums of money which, it is believed, were recklessly, uselessly and improperly squandered; and

WHEREAS, It is commonly reported that the patrol boat Lilly, represented by the said W. H. Lucas, late chief commissioner, to be worte $20,000, is absolutely worthless and unfit for service; and

WHEREAS, It has been reported that the said steamer Lilly, which was sold to the State for $7,500 was bought for a considerably less amount by those purchasing her in behalf of the State, and

WHEREAS, Thos. M. Holt, late Governor of the State, has publicly stated that he endorsed a note for over $6,000 in behalf of the State in payment for said steamer Lilly, the said Thos. M. Holt having no authority to pledge the credit of the State for such a purpose; and

WHEREAS, Numerous charges of grave and serious nature, supported by affidavits and testimony under oath, reflecting upon the official acts and character of the said W. H. Lucas and his associates, were made and filed with the said Thomas M. Holt, then Governor, without action on his part; and,

WHEREAS, It is generally believed that the said Thomas M. Holt, then Governor, would have removed the said W. H. Lucas from office had not the said Lucas been the maker of the note for the payment for the Steamer Lilly, which the said Holt endorsed; and,

WHEREAS, The good name of the State, as well as the said Thomas M. Holt, W. H. Lucas and their associates require that all the facts shall be known; and,

RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That a select committee, to consist of three Senators and five Representatives be appointed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House respectively, to investigate the facts set forth in the foregoing preamble and all other matters in relation to the oyster industry. That said committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, and administer oaths as in courts of law; and shall, before the adjournment of this Assembly, report the result of its investigation, unless otherwise ordered, and shall make such recommendation as in its judgment are necessary for the correction of abuses, punishment of offenders and revival of the previous prosperity of the oyster interests of the State.

BILLS THAT PASSED THIRD READING.

Bill to allow the Clerk of Superior court to appoint cotton weighers in Franklin county; bill to prevent fishing in certain streams of Henderson county; bill to amend chapter 66, private laws of 1889, and to re-enact certain sections to extend time for chartering a bank; to amend section 1361, of the Code, by striking out the words "incompetency of testimony;" bill to return certain old records to Craven county.

Mr. Ewart arose to a question of personal privilege on statement in News and Observer about doctoring the journal.

"Mr. Speaker: I rise to a question of personal privilege. In the News and Observer this morning I note the following editorial: 'In regard to Lee's birthday, the House tabled its own resolution to adjourn in honor of Lee, when the Senate non-concurred. We have never denied that on Lee's birthday on Saturday adjournment was had earlier than usual. If Jim Young made the motion quoted it is not recorded by a single newspaper reporter present, and we do not believe he made it. It looks like somebody has been 'doctoring' the journal.' Now Mr. Speaker this charge of 'doctoring' the journal is not only a serious reflection upon the Speaker of this House and the principal clerk of this House who have the supervision of the journal directly under their charge, but it is a grave reflection upon the members of this body. It so happened that in the unadvoidable absence of the Speaker, I occupied the chair on the day referred to. Immediately after the prayer of the Rev. Mr. [illegible], of Newberne, the chairman on committee of enrolled bills, reported the Pitt county bond bill and asked immediate consideration thereon. Mr. Ray, of Macon, at once objected, stating as his reason therefor, that there was a tacit understanding had among not [illegible] the day preceding that that day, it being a legal holiday, Lee's birthday.

The chair replied that he was not in a position to pass on tacit understandings, and unless the journal of the day preceding directed an immediate adjournment of the House, he would proceed with the order of business.

The motion to confirm the report of the committee was put and carried. Immediately thereafter I recognized Young of Wake, who moved an immediate adjournment in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Gen. R. E. Lee. The motion prevailed and the House at once adjourned.

This, Mr. Speaker, is a plain, unvarnished statement of the facts as they occurred, and no member on this floor, be he Democrat, Republican or Populist, will controvert it.

This publication in the News and Observer, charging a falsification of the record, is so manifestly unfair and unjust to the Speaker and to the members of this house, that I am sure that journal will at once make the amende honorable.

Mr. Monroe also arose to a question of personal privilege and read the following:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak for a minute or two to a question of personal privilege. Douglass' ghost, like Banquo's, will not down at our bidding. I had hoped yesterday that this House, and the whole country, had heard the last of this matter, but, as I have been informed, that on yesterday it was stated that I was publicly charged with having voted for the famous resolution, and that I did not deny it, and as the papers this morning are full of it, I wish to make a brief statement of the whole matter.

"When the resolution was offered, having no prejudice against Douglass simply because he was a negro, thinking nothing of his wife, white or otherwise, and intending in no way to endorse inter marriage between the races, and wishing to please the negroes in this House and to remove their prejudice against my party, my first impulse was to vote for the resolution. I so indicated it by standing up; but when there was some confusion, knowing that it was not unanimous and spontaneous; that the compliment was worse than sounding brass and a tinkling symbol, and not wishing to be mixed up in the matter at the final count, I did not vote at all. When a little boy I read with delight the beautiful story of General Washington pulling off his hat and bowing profoundly to a negro, because, he said, he did not care to be outdone in politeness by a simple old negro. Somewhat in the same spirit, I felt that as the negroes in this house, and in other legislative halls of this country, have for decades been pulling off their hats to my ideals, that it was not too much for me to doff mine once to theirs. If by so doing I have unwittingly compared Douglass to Lee and Washington, the one 'the noblest figure that ever stood in the foreground of a nation's history,' the other, 'the grandest figure that ever shed lustre upon a lost cause," oh, shades of the heroes of Valley Forge and Gettysburg, I beg pardon if I have sinned against the sense of propriety of the people of my own party, not only in this State but in others, I can only plead that my action sprang from a generous impulse in a pure and patriotic heart, and I can but express the hope, that when the excitement, rancor, and hate engendered by this discussion shall have died and been forgotten, that the generous impulse that actuated me, may in some mysterious and unseen way continue to soften and bless the lives of men."

OPENING FOR WOMEN.

Bill to provide for the appointment of women as notaries public was advocated by Messrs. Ewart and Peebles. Mr. Campbell wanted the ayes and noes called for. Mr. Smith of Gates wanted the ayes and noes that he might go on record against it. The bill passed its second reading. Mr. Bryan moved to table. The bill passed its third reading by a vote of 63 to 19.

Senate bill 88, house bill 1070, for the protection of owners of cattle and other animals, against driving off cattle and unlawfully impounding them. The bill was explained by Mr. Leinbach and Mr. Taylor and passed second and third readings.

Bill to prevent the working of female convicts on public roads and with male convicts was reported unfavorably and tabled.

Bill to protect birds from February 1st to November 15th in Mecklenburg, Montgomery and Wilson counties passed second and third readings.

Bill to extend the provisions of the Mecklenburg road law to Ashe and Watauga counties passed second and third readings.

Resolution providing for joint committee of House and Senate on election law, tabled, the election law having already passed.

The following bills passed second and third readings:

Resolution by Mr. Hunter, appointing February 27th, as the time to go into the election of a judge for Madison, Buncombe and Henderson; senate bill to repeal chapter 523, laws of 1893; bill by Winborn to amend section 616, of the Code, in regard to defendant's giving bond to secure fees of office during the pending of a contest; act for protection of inn-keepers against dead beats explained by Ewart. GREAT RIOT IN SAVANNAH.

Catholics Grow Wild Over the Lecture of an Ex-Priest--Violent Mob Law in Evidence--All the Military in the City on Duty.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 26.—This has been the most exciting night in the history of Savannah. For five hours the city has trembled on the verge of religious riots. The entire white millery force of the city, except the artillery, has been on duty. There are ten infantry companies and the Georgia Hussars, the latter being dismounted.

The city has been liberally placarded with notices that ex-Priest Slattery and his wife, described as an ex-nun, would lecture here on Catholicism. Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, a secret Catholic organization, at once took steps asking Mayor Myers to refuse to permit the ex-priest to hold his lecture. The petition said that if Slatterly was allowed to speak there would disorder and riot. About 500 signed the petition. When it was presented to the mayor by a committee of twelve Catholics, including the presidents of two divisions of the A. O. H., he [illegible] corporation attorney to the effect that as mayor he had no power to abridge the rights of free speech guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and Georgia. In his opinion the city attorney said that there could be no disorder or trouble if those who would be offended by Slatterly's remarks would stay away from his lecture.

The committee stated that it was their desire to avoid trouble and that they would use their influence in that direction. They did so but their efforts utterly failed. By 7 o'clock several hundred had collected. When Slattery arrived the mob had not assumed large enough proportions to cope with the police. By 8 o'clock a howling mob of over 1,500 surrounded Masonic hall. In the hall was an audience of about 400, including a number of ladies. The lecturer had hardly begun before brick bats and cobble stones began to rain on the windows.

Before 9 o'clock the mob had grown to probably between 3,000 and 4,000 people. Window after window in the hall was crashed. Cries of "Kill him!" "Down with Slattery!" "Down with the renegade!" were heard. Chief McDermott summoned the mayor. The lecture closed at 9:30 o'clock, and it was apparent that it meant the loss of many lives fer the lecturer and the audience to leave the hall.

As the ex-priest was about to leave with his friends, the chief of police stopped them and refused to allow any one to go down stairs. Outside, Mayor Myers and Col. Wm. Garrard were in consultation The mob hissed at the police and hooted at their orders to disperse. The military alarm, eleven taps on all fire bells in the city was sent in, but when it sounded the mob derided it.

"Bring on your military," some of the leaders shouted.

"To hell with them; they can't save Slattery."

By order of the mayor, the guards formed in two single lines and charged the mob with fixed bayonets in hope of breaking it. The mob was shoved back slowly but refused to break, and occasionally rocks were thrown at the [illegible].

In the hall the audience was still penned up, some of the women were crying and those who ventured to glance at the risk of a broken head and saw the mob found nothing to encourage them.

Vicar-General Cafferty who is in charge of the diocese, in the absence of Bishop Becker, addressed a portion of the mob.

"This man Slattery," said he, "can do your church no harm. You are bringing disgrace on your religion by your conduct here tonight. It can meet with nothing but condemnation. I plead with you to disperse and go home; do not render it necessary to shed blood here this night."

A few of those he addressed shook the vicar-general by the hand and left, but the majority stood still.

Four companies of guards were then banked about the door of the hall with the police and Slattery was brought down. As he came out with eight policemen and the mayor, there was a howl from the mob, but the military, charging bayonets, pushed it back in all directions. Slattery was placed in the centre of the military and headed by a detachment of mounted police and with foot police on the sides, the four companies of infantry, amid hisses and jeers, marched to the Pulaski House, followed by hundreds. Slattery was so buried in the midst of the military that the mob could not see him. The mob had got among them that any assault would be promptly met with bullet.

At the hotel about 600 had gathered. The military made a solid mass in front of the entrance, presented bayonets and Slattery walked in unjured. A large detachment of police was left at the hotel to guard him over night. Every door of the hotel was locked and guarded. At Masonic hall the other seven companies remained as a guard for Mrs. Slattery, and to prevent further damage to property. Finding that Mr. Slattery had gone, the mob largely dwindled away, Mrs. Slattery was placed in a carriage later and with a strong force of police was brought to hotel. Mrs. Slattery is booked for a lecture to women to-morrow afternoon and Slattery for a lecture to men to-morrow night. Threats are made to-night that they will be driven from the city to-morrow.

Sympathy of Many Citizens—All Quiet—Walser "Will Be Governor Some Day."

Special to the CAUCASIAN.]

LEXINGTON, N. C., Feb. 26.—Hundreds of citizens of Davidson and adjoining counties have viewed the remains of Dr. R. L. Payne, Sr., who was shot and almost instantly killed by Baxter Shemwell yesterday. Everything is quiet, and the citizens will defend the prisoner and see that he gets a fair trial. No threats of lynching are heard. Court comes next week and he will have a speedy trial. Able counsel have been employed on both sides, and the trial will be one of great interest.

Populists as well as Republicans are bragging on the fair and impartial way in which Hon. Z. V. Walser, of Davidson, presides over the lower body of the legislature. They predict he will be Governor some day.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The Senate gave another day to the sundry civil bill without completing it and without taking up the vital points concerning financial legislation. The important feature of the day was a short [illegible] bounty question, resulting in the success of those advocating the payment of the bounty prematurely cut off by the enactment of the tariff law. The proposed bounty aggregates $5,300,000; as stated in the amendments adopted; but Mr. Mitchell gave it as his belief that it would reach $8,000,000. A point of order was made against the amendment, but the Senate voted it in order by a vote of 48 to 13. After that the success of the bounty proposition was assured, although efforts were made to load it down with free silver amendments and other propositions. In the course of the debate, Mr. Gorman warned the Senate that this bounty proposition would add to existing deficiencies which, he said, would reach $60,000,000 for the present year. The final votes on the bounty proposition showed the friends of the amendment very strong, and they carried the amendment easily.

Mr. Frye, of Maine, succeeded in carrying an important amendment, providing for a retiring list for the revenue marine service, in order to retire many aged officers who have done good service and who now stand in the way of promotion.

Mr. Gorman (Md. Dem.) and Mr. Berry (Ark. Dem.) had a brisk exchange of personalities over timber inspectors, who had been denounced by Mr. Gorman as political favorites. Mr. Wolcott also made a severe arraignment of timber inspectors.

Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, discussing the sugar bounty amendment said the beet sugar interests were entitled to the bounty, but the cane interest of Louisiana was not, as its Senators had voted against the sugar bounty on the final vote in the Senate, when a single vote would have retained the bounty. This was a binding obligation on Louisiana, and it precluded her from coming here and claiming a bounty that their representatives had rejected. It had been said Louisiana was willing to yield her bounty in order to strike down the manufacturers sert that this charge was [illegible] would [illegible] too serious a statement against the State. But whatever the reason, Louisiana had herself abolished the bounty by her votes in the Senate, and she should not complain of this abolition now.

Mr. Hoar went into a tariff speech and declared that if the sages at the other end of the Capitol, and the sage at the other end of the avenue (Mr. Cleveland) had their way for two years, cotton would be down to 3 cents per pound.

The final vote was then taken. The question was divided, the vote being upon the proposition for bounty on sugar produced prior to the passage of the tariff act, and it was agreed to yeas, 46; nays, 20.

The vote was then taken on the 2nd branch of the sugar bounty amendment for an aggregate bounty of $5,000,000, and it was agreed to, yeas, 36; nays, 25.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The House adopted a special order today under which the day, until 3:30, was given to the committee on labor, and to-morrow will be given to the committee on public buildings and grounds. Most of the time was occupied in the consideration and passage of the bill providing for a board of conciliation and arbitration (in case conciliation failed) to mediate and settle differences between common carriers and their employees.

The bill was criticised by Mr. Dingley on the ground that the decrees of the arbitrators which, by its terms were to be enforced by the United States courts could be enforced as against the transportation companies, but not against the employees. This objection was met by Mr. McCleary, of Missouri, who pointed out that the employes were treated by the terms of the act, as far as possible, as members of an incorporated body.

Mr. Bartlett, Democrat of New York, protested against what he termed the hasty consideration of the bill, but it was passed without division.

A bill was also passed to provide for the publication of the bulletins of the Department of Labor, and also one to aid the Baltimore exposition to be held in 1897.

The remainder of the day was devoted to eulogies on the life and public services of the late Representative Post, of Illinois.

$3,000 Worth of Whiskey Scooped.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 26.—The police department has seized the schooner Carolina, Capt. Jersey, from Savannah, loaded with twenty-eight barrels of fine whiskies, contraband under the Dispensary law, consigned to parties in Charleston. Captain and crew were arrested and the schooner confiscated. The value of the liquors seized was $3,000.

Election Investigation in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 26.—The committee appointed by the legislature to investigate charges of fraud in connection with the election for governor in November last began work to-day. A sub-committee is sitting in Maury county, two in East Tennessee and one in Henry county. The investigation will occupy about forty days.

THE CAUCASIAN.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

We must insist that our correspondents "boil it down." Our space is so limited that we cannot in future print long articles upon any topic that is not in every way important. Write, write by all means. But make it short and to the point. Please remember this, and save yourselves useless labor and ye editor much embarrassment.

THAT LOST BILL.

The bill to amend section 1963 of the Code, that has been missing for some time—lost, strayed or stolen—provides that the Railroads shall be liable to exemplary damages in all cases of wilful and wanton violations of the laws made for their government.

As has been suggested to us, if the Railroads mean to keep the law, they should not object to the passage of this bill. Indeed, we do not see how the Railroads can have any motive at all to oppose this bill, if they mean to keep the law.

But if they do not mean to observe the law, we can understand very easily why they should resist the passage of this bill. They are, we understand, using all the arts and wiles known to the lobby to defeat this bill. The inference that they want to be permitted to wilfully and wantonly violate the law is unavoidable, so long as they show hostility to this measure.

We are informed, that the bill cannot be found. And in the meantime the end of the session draws on ap[illegible] cannot be found soon, its chances to be considered will be very slight indeed.

The CAUCASIAN wants to know where that bill is. It wants to know how any Railroad official came to see the original draft of the bill, so as to know whose handwriting it was drawn in. It wants to know what members, if any, of the Railroad lobby have had access to the bills while in possession of the Houses; or of the committee. Indeed we want to know many things about this bill, that we do not make much progress in finding out.

The CAUCASIAN has been most shamefully abused and misrepresented, because it charged some days ago, that this bill had been stolen. We have no intention of letting this matter rest, until something shall be done about it that will protect the public, and vindicate the course of this paper in relation to this matter. Let the bill be found, and passed, if it ought to pass; and if it cannot be found, let another bill be prepared and passed, if it ought te pass. If such a bill ought not to pass, let that fact be made known, and let it be voted down in plain daylight.

THE INSURANCE BILL.

Early in the present session a bill was introduced into the legislature to compel insurance companies to pay the face of all fire policies on buildings entirely destroyed by fire. This bill was favorably commented upon by THE CAUCASIAN at the time, and the hope was expressed that it might pass.

But the bill seems to have fallen out of sight. Indeed, we have been told that it will be impossible to get such a bill through the legislature, on account of the fact that the South Eastern Tariff Association will bring its power to bear to defeat it. We do not share in this fear. We believe the majority of this legislature is inaccessible to any influence of trusts and combines. And we expect to see this bill enacted into law before the end of the session.

We call attention again to the South Eastern Tariff Association. This is an insurance trust, to all intents and purposes, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga. It is certain that this lawless concern dominates the insurance business in this State, it being impossible for any company not a member of this association to do business in this State.

We think a simple statute should be passed by the General Assembly forbidding any company in this trust to do business in this State. We have been condemning trusts upon the stump and in the newspapers. We now have a chance to destroy some of them, so far as this State is concerned. Let it be done, if we do not want to be turned into ridicule for failing to do what we promised to do.

THINKS WE DO NOT KNOW.

Commenting upon the lost bill to amend the Code, our esteemed contemporary, the News & Observer, intimates that neither it nor the CAUCASIAN knows enough about the law of the case to make it appropriate for us to say much about it.

We think we know, that, if the law, as it now stands, does not allow North Carolina to punish the railways for wilful and wanton violations of the law, it ought to be so amended as to permit such punishment in all such cases. This seems pretty plain to us. We reckon the News & Observer will have no trouble to grasp this proposition. We think we know that this bill ought to be found and disposed of; and we think our neighbor knows the same thing. We fail to see any very obstruse questions in this plain matter.

We suppose it cannot be that the against this bill. We cannot see why it should be, as there is no politics in it. We hoped the News & Observer might find itself able to join us in commending some one measure now before the General Assembly. But it seems that our hope is to be rudely disappointed. Well, we shall bear it with such measure of contentment as we can command; and pursue our way alone.

PEPPER SAUCE.

They are trying Morganfield over in Virginia for holding up a train and taking a few thousands of dollars. They don't think of trying Mr. Cleveland and the syndicate for taking eight and a half millions.—Nice country, this!

We move that the News & Observer have permission to cry some over the money the Democrats gave to the bond syndicate the other day, just as soon as it gets over its present spell of crying over Washington and Lee.

A churchman in another State tells his people what they must not eat during Lent. A good many people would be glad to have him tell what they may eat, and how and where they can get it.

The New York State troops are to be marched about the State in the Summer. They want to get the people used to them by the time they are needed to destroy the liberties of the country.

The arresting of bank officers, for stealing the funds of the banks, is very popular this season. It may be that it will be extended next season to the government officials, that deal with syndicates.

The army of hungry Democrats, who wanted to go to Mexico, and didn't get to, are sure that a wonderful backbone may carry a head with very little in it.

Our neighbor's late cartoon shows that it could probably succeed in the undertaking business. Open a shop, neighbor—The Democracy can furnish the corpses.

The Secretary of the Treasury is a much afflicted man. The public does not appreciate his services to the bond syndicate, and the whiskey trust is in trouble.

March up, and pay your taxes! What right has a common American citizen to object to Belmont and Morgan pocketing his earnings any way?

It is announced, that Mr. Bissell will retire from the administration. Wonder if the whole thing couldn't be pursuaded to retire,

Washington City wants to know whether Spiritualists are Ministers, Depends on whether the President has appointed them.

Another rich American girl is to marry a suit of clothes and one thing and another, that they call a Count over in France.

CREED: We, the Democrats of North Carolina, believe that Fred Douglass died that we might live.

You pays your taxes, and the syndicate gits 'em every time.

True Reform.

The legislature did right in passing the 6 per cent interest bill. This is true reform and in the right line. The greatest danger that now threatens the liberties of the mass of the people of the whole Christain world is the monopoly of money and the high rate of interest that the masses have to pay for it. Let the Populists press forward in this direction till the nation shall borrow no more money—shall make its own money when it cannot be raised by taxation, and when the people can get money from the states at a tax of two per cent, which money must be made for the sovereign states by their agents the nation. More hereafter.

SOME EVIDENCE ON THE WORKINGS

Of State Adoption in North Carolina.

In corroboration of many facts which have appeared over my name, I now offer some facts under the names of other witnesses who can speak of their own personal knowledge and experience.

W. J. PEELE.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 22, 1895.

Messrs J. N. Morgan & Co.:

Gentlemen: Kindly answer the following questions:

1. Have you bought and sold the books on the State list at the contract prices on the lists furnished by the University Publishing company?

Answer. Yes; always.

2. Have you ever been informed that there was an error in the contract prices of the books on the list? If so, when?

Answer. No. I wish this matter had been agitated earlier, for I find, on referring to the catalogue of the American Book company, that they sell Harvey's grammar at 65 cents, one-fifth off, 30 days. I have always ordered by the contract price on the State list, 70 cents, one-fourth off for cash, both from the American Book company and University Publishing company, and neither has ever informed me that I was overpaying them one-half of a cent per copy, and paying cash for the privilege. I find, too, that I have been ordering Harvey's elementary grammar by State list at 45 cents, one-third price at 42 cents, one-fifth off, 30 days It did not occur to me that there was a difference between the catalogue price and the State list price.

3. How long have you been in the school book business?

Answer. Since 1880.

4. Since Hansell's histories were put on the list have you been furnished with exchange prices?

Answer. I have not.

5. When the change was made from Holmes' old Readers to the new, were you instructed to exchange the new Reader for the old Reader and make allowance for the old Reader? Were you instructed to make any provision or exchange whatever?

Answer. No. The old prices of Holmes' Readers were 14c, 24c, 36c and 48c. The prices on the new Readers are 15c, 25c, 40c and 50c. I have sold them at these prices and have never been informed of any exchange price or allowance.

6. At what prices do you sell all school books to the public school children of Asheville?

Answer. At introductory prices, always.

7. What, then, would Harvey's Grammars cost the city schools?

Answer. The larger Grammar, 65c; the Elementary Grammar, 42c.

8. Would there be any saving in the cost of any book if the State Board chose the books for the city schools here?

Answer. No. On Harvey's Grammars there would be a saving to the city schools here under the present system; that is, the city schools would be getting the Grammars now at 42c and 65c, while county children pay 45c and 70c.

9. Are you willing for these statements to go before the public?

Answer. Yes.

Best Thoughts of Correspondents.

FAIRPLAY.—Wants the dogs taxed. He tninks there are 90,000 dogs in the State—that they steal, an average of one pound of meat per year, which at 10 cents per pound would be pretty little sum. He wants them taxed.

H. C. SPIERS.—Wants the temperance people to not be discouraged. He is glad so many men in the Senate stood up for the late bill. And he wants those who voted against the bill to be remembered at the polls.

A VOTER.—Exhorts the whatchdogs of the treasury to see to it that no money is taken out just for the "big" of the thing. He thinks we need money for too many purposes in this State to make it proper for North Carolina to spend any money on the Atlanta Exposition.

J. W. MEHAFFE.—Thinks there should be three ballot boxes at each voting place: One red for United States candidates; One white for State candidates; One blue for county candidates. The tickets, he thinks should be colored like the boxes. He thinks there should be a clear space of one hundred feet radius about the boxes to keep the crowds away. He also thinks each voter should deposit his own ballot.

Your issue of recent date contains the announcement that a bill had been introduced by Senator Francke amending the constitution forbidding the giving of free passes to any public official. The bill as introduced is the New York law, and is the same as the one introduced by Mr. Cheek of Orange, more than two weeks ago in the House. The fact of its introduction there by him was published in the Charlotte Observer, also the Hillsboro Recorder. The bill was referred in the House to the committee on Railroads. The action of the committee in regard to the bill may be seen in a letter to the Charlotte Observer, published in last Sundays issue. It is to be hoped it will meet a more favorable report at the hands of the Senate committee. I share with you in the opinion of its ratification by the people at the polls.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex.

SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.

MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief; it purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,

CAPT. W. M. RUST,
Attorney at Law.

For primary, secondary and tertiary syphilis, for blood poisoning, mercurial poison, malaria, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin diseases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, boils, erysipelas, eczema—we may say, without fear of contradiction, that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world, and makes positive, speedy and permanent cures in all cases.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition, due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefited by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P.—Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 14th, 1893.—I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my own personal knowledge. I was affected with heart disease, pleurisy and rheumatism for 35 years, was treated by the very best physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, tried every known remedy without finding relief. I have only taken one bottle of your P. P. P., and can cheerfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I can recommend your medicine to all sufferers of the above diseases.

Burglars Wreck a Bank Vault.

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 25.—The first national bank of Griswold, Cass county, was entered last night by burglars who blew open the vault door and then drilled into the front door of the lock safe, putting in a heavy charge of explosive, lit the fuse and closed the vault door. The explosion totally wrecked the vault, doing over $3,500 damages to safe, vaults and building. The burglars made a hasty departure. Over $400 worth of stamps belonging to the postmaster and $120 in nickles inside the vault are known to have been taken. The burglar-proof safe inside the vault contained $20,000 in cash, but this is safe. Men are scouring the country for traces of the thieves who are evidently professionals.

The Chinese Anxious for Peace.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—A dispatch to the Times from Tien Tsin says that the Rev. Gilbert Beid, of the board of foreign missions, of the Presbyterian church in the United States, who is now at Pekin, has privately interviewed the members of the grand council and other important Chinese personages, all of whom received him in the most courteous manner. All the persons interviewed expressed themselves as being strongly desirous of peace with Japan, and hoped that the mission of Li Hung Chang to Japan would be successful.

Grover is the Cause.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Governor Evans and ex-Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, arrived here last evening for the purpose of visiting the Drexel institute and get points for their new school at Rock Hill. Mr. Tillman said that the cotton-growers are being pauperized and the manufacturers are growing rich. When asked the cause for such a condition, Governor Evans said: "It is caused by Grover Cleveland's financial policy."

Under This Banner

Readers of this paper can now march to knowledge, honor and success. All intelligent people agree upon one fact—that there is no middle course to pursue in life. It must be progress or retrogression. We must go forward or backward.

To Succeed in Life

Is the desire and aim of all. Chief among the elements of success is education, and chief among the sources from which that education may be acquired is the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA.

It treats of every subject on earth in a clear, practical and sensible way. It unvails to you all the secrets of nature, so far as they have been unlocked by the wise men of the earth. Far from wearying you, you will find it entrancingly interesting.

We will not tell you that you ought to have the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA. You know that already, don't you? But we will tell you that you ought to get it now.

Why? Because a good thing cannot be done too soon. Because if the books are of value to you, every minute you are without them is a loss of that value for that time; is it not?

Because the best terms and prices can be obtained now.

It is the opportunity of a lifetime. For specimen pages, prices of various styles of binding, etc., address—and saw enough of it, your digestive organs may perhaps be equal, ostrich like, to any task you impose—even to the digestion of lard-cooked food.

If You Saw Your Own Wood

If however, like thousands of other people, you have learned that you must "draw the line at lard," this is to remind you that there is a clean, delicate and healthful vegetable substitute, called which if used in place of lard, permits you to eat pies, pastry, patties and such "good things" without fear of dyspeptic consequences.

There's abundant proof, but none so convincing and so pleasant as a trial for yourself. We invite it. For sale everywhere.

NEWS FROM NEWTON.

Judge Timberlake's Able Charge--The Secrest Double Murder Case.

Cor. of The Caucasian.

NEWTON, N. C., Feb. 27.—Court has been in session here for the past week, his Honor, Judge E. W. Timberlake, presiding. The Judge's charge, which was quite lengthy, was listened to most attentively and was highly complimented by all parties. He dwelt to a considerable extent on election frauds—something that has not been done here for many years. His rulings in points of law and management of the court have been firm, and displayed the knowledge of one of many years experience on the bench.

The docket has been a heavy one and court will possibly continue throughout the week.

Solicitor J. F. Spainhour, although it being his first term, has shown ability and talent in handling the prosecution for the State. In the case of Tom Covington for the murder of Brown, Mr. Spainhour made a most able and impressive argument.

The Judge's next appointment will be McDowell court at Marion next week, at which time the noted double murder trial of Hoke C. Secrest will take place. CATAWBA.

CONVERTED AT LAST.

Democrats Making a Free Silver Movement--Without the Investigation of Banks--Great Scott!!

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Routine matters on the floor of the House were overwhelmed in interest to-day by the initiation of a brisk movement to secure a majority of the Democratic membership in favor of a financial polico, having the free coinage of silver in its keynote. For some time there has been a discussion carried on by the free silver leaders of the party over the practicability of a plan to unite their forces, and to crystalize their ideas into some sort of a platform or declaration. The net result has been the draft of a declaration addressed "to the Democrats of the United States," and outlining a financial policy for the Democratic party. This paper has been circulated on the Democratic side of the House, and is being vigorously discussed with the object of obtaining the concensus of opinion of silver Democrats upon its expressions.

The chief instigators of the movement are:

Messrs. Bland, of Missouri; Bryan, of Nebraska; Sibley, of Pennsylvania; and Coffeen, of Wyoming. Their paper is at presem but a tentative expression, they say, and not yet in form for publication, since none of its details has been definitely agreed upon. In substance, it states the financial policy of the party to be for the free coinage of gold and silver on terms of equality at the ratio of 15 to 1; for the issue of all paper money by the government without the intervention of banks, and opposition to any issue of interest-bearing bonds without the authority of a special act of Congress.

But few Eastern members have been approached, and the Populists are entirely ignored, with the expectation that they will come into the Democratic party if it declares for free silver.

Conservatives Endorse Tillman.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 26.—Early this morning a committee of conservative or minority Democrats, who had been in session all night, issued an address endorsing Tillman's proposition for an equal dividend between the two Democratic factions of representation in the constitutional convention.

Mr. Leinbach said that he had been told that this bill would turn the city over to ignorance. If it did this he would vote against it, whether it be white ignorance or colored ignorance. [Applause].

Mr. Young said the bill would not do this. It was untrue, and the man who uttered it knew it to be untrue when he said it, that this bill turned the city of Raleigh over to the negroes. He had been tired of this cry of ignorance whenever a colored man was in it. He paid his respects to Mr. Shaffer who, he said, had forced himself upon the people here. The vote on roll call stood 58 to 15, no quorum voting.

The house adjourned till 10 a. m. today.

OUTRAGE FOLLOWS OUTRAGE.

The Malicious and Willful Falsehoods of Democratic Journals Lead to the Verge of Crime and Blasphemy.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 26.—A sensation has been created here by a negro mass meeting held last night at Big Bethel, the largest colored church in the city, which was advertised as a memorial meeting in honor of Fred. Douglass, but which was turned into an indignation meeting against the whites.

As speaker followed speaker, the addresses became more and more unbridled, until the affair broke out in spots with "Jim Crow" cars, "social equality," and "calls for revenge," as the texts for fiery outbreaks.

Proctor, the pastor of the colored Congregational church, was received with applause when he announced that he agreed with Douglass when he told the Southern people to beware, or they would find "firebrands under their homes and poison in their coffee."

R. M. Cheeks, pastor of Big Bethel church, was cheered when he told of how the North Carolina legislature had put Douglass first, Washingtou second and Lee third.

Carter, the pastor of the Friendship Baptist church declared that he would marry a white woman if he could, and said the negroes only envied Fred Douglass because he had succeeded where they had failed. He made the hit of the evening. Norris, a grandson-in-law of Fred Douglass devoted most of his eulogy on Douglass to the burning question of "Jim Crow" cars, advised the negroes to carry their cases to the Supreme court and finally brought down the house by declaring that Fred Douglass ranked next to Jesus Christ.

If the statements in the above dispatch are true, the negroes of Georgia, some of them at least, are much larger fools than we have taken them to be. Such utterances as those above are criminal in the extreme and deserve to be sternly frowned down by all good people of both races.

So far as the statements about the North Carolina legislature go, THE CAUCASIAN has shown them to be utterly false, and the lower house of our legislature has placed the brand of falsehood upon both the statements and the authors of them.

These alleged utterances of Georgia Negroes are only a little less criminal than the persons who invented and started the monstrous lies about our legislature.—EDITOR CAUCASIAN.

Thanks.

A nice sum was realized from the children's dance Friday night, and turned over to the poor unfortunates for whom the entertainment was given. Many thanks to those who so kindly responded to the call.

"Oh! What a Fall, My Countrymen."

Never, since the surrender of Lord Cornwallis and the inauguration George Washington, the first President, have the people of the "Old North State" had the opportunity of making a dollar go so far and buy so much in Dry Goods, Trimmings, Laces, Edgings, Embroideries, and all of the latest in Mermaid Waist, in Plain, Striped and figured Silks, as at SWINDELL'S CASH STORE

This season we propose to break all previous records in price, quality and style. To be convinced of the fact, you have but to be shown through our Shoe Department and note the new styles, pretty shapes and extremely LOW PRICES.

Our Gent's Furnishing and Clothing Departments are replete with all of the latest styles for Men, Youth and Boys, and are being sold at excursion rates.

Our Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Mattings, etc., are at record-breaking prices, and you cannot possibly invest your money anywhere to as great advantage as at SWINDELL'S CASH STORE.

To close out our Glassware and Crockery we will sell the entire stock, including Lamps and fixtures, at prime cost.

Be sure and see the latest, Mermaid Silk Waist, our dressmaker made.

Yours respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL,
106 Fayetteville Street.

RIGHT NEEDS NO APOLOGY!

When the smoke of the terrific war of business, we have been waging, cleared away, we found during our stock-taking last week, the tables in our Clothing Department strewn with broken lots. In the rush full lines had given away. A dollar in the drawer is worth two locked up in merchandise to be carried over. So we have buckled on the armour again for another mighty onslaught. We were never more determined to make a clean sweep than now. We have shut our eyes, gritted our teeth, and bared the strong right arm of honest purpose, and with "no quarter" as our battle cry, we are cutting and slashing right and left—not sparing a single winter garment, nor leaving an actual value price standing. We shall keep up a crusade against surplus stock until the last vestige of it is swept rom the house.
